FOREWORD

We have taken pictures and more pictures; we have written articles and re-written articles in an endeavor to make this volume of the LATIPAC the very best ever and to attempt to help you relive the year 1949-1950.

This year has held memories, both happy and sad, of sports, of friends, of teachers, and of ne'er-to-be forgotten socials. In this annual for 1950, we have struggled to preserve for you these memories and to help you in future years to remember this year at your "Alma Mater."

We have realized that this is a history which should be accurate and inclusive of everything characteristic of life at Broughton. In accordance, we have set these two goals in mind in hopes that it can be a living record of the past year.

After nine months' hard work, we, the class of 1950, present to you, the student body, this the

"1950 LATIPAC"

DEDICATION

WE, The Senior Class of 1950, dedicate this volume of our high school memories to one who has been both friend and teacher. Her understanding disposition and willing cooperation will never be forgotten.

SCHOOL BOARD

THE SENIOR SONG

By PAT CARTER and PAT EBERHART

To the tune of the Last Time I Saw Paris

The senior class is leaving
The halls of Broughton Hi.
We hesitate one moment more
Before we say goodbye.

We leave behind us mem'ries
Of joys that made us see
One's high school days are still
The best of any yet to be.

The basketball and football games
With pep we always met.
The Queen of Hearts and then the Prom
We never shall forget.

The doors will close behind us
As sadly we depart.
To leave you dear ole Broughton
Means to leave behind our hearts.

We'll ne're forget you Broughton
Though we grow old and gray
No matter how they change you,
We'll remember you this way.

THE BROUGHTON STORY

Too quickly the months have passed, and now we find our senior year drawing to a close. These passing months have given to us the memories of our last year at Broughton. These memories are like a story of a part of our lives, but unlike an imaginary story; this story has become a part of us and will always be treasured in our hearts. This is our story . . . the story of our senior year and our school . . . it is the Broughton story.

You might say that chapter one of the Broughton story began on September sixth, nineteen hundred and forty-nine. That day the halls and rooms of our school again resounded with the clamor and noises of the voices and feet of some nine hundred new and returning students. It had been a wonderful summer for all of us, with lazy days at the beach, afternoons at the local swimming pools, trips to the mountains or other states or just taking it easy, but all things must pass and thus school had to start. Last year's seniors were gone, but a new crop of sub-freshman had taken their places. We, the new seniors, could hardly believe that this was our last "first day" at Broughton; and with mixed feelings we began to fill each day with memories of our senior year.

The golden days of Indian summer, that we called September, were filled with the thoughts and plans for a new year. Our new coaches King, Ringgold, and Grad had already begun to plan; for on August 15, they had begun practice in preparation for the Greensboro football game. It was an energetic crowd that boarded the three chartered buses bound for the game; and even though we lost, our spirits were high. There was a hint of fall in the air, and with high hopes we all looked forward to the coming season. Do you remember when we elected cheerleaders—who could forget those aching muscles after practice and hoarse voices heard in evidence all over the school? It was a hard choice to make; but after the final selection, our new cheerleaders made their debut amid the downpour of rain at the Durham game at Riddick Stadium.

Not long after, we settled down to the regular routines of class work. We, the seniors, began the nominations for our class officers. Run-offs had to be held in all the offices except vice-president and sergeant-at-arms positions. The big question of the election was the presidential decision. After a second tie, the class voted not to have co-presidents, and in the third election, Pete Jenkins won with a slight margin over Vincet Anderson.

The word new was being applied to many things during this first month. The band had a lot of new items in the majorette uniforms, some new band uniforms and new trousers for the girls. There were several new teachers, quite a few men too. There were new plans for repairing the auditorium and all sorts of new interests. September was just the beginning.

Like the swiftly falling leaves of October came the many elections and events of this month which were to effect our future months at Broughton. This month seemed to be a month of elections, conventions, trips, football games, and varied chapel programs. The first Hi-Times of the year was published just a few days before we all attended the 1949 State Fair. The day of the fair was a gala day!! School was dismissed at 12:30; and everyone had the time of his life on the thrilling rides, watching the grandstand shows, trudging through the exhibit halls, and eating everything from pink cotton candy to green dill pickle. It was not easy to face the reality of school the next day with those "ride-aching" joints and butterfly stomachs.

To the smell of the burning tar in repairing the leaky roof, the underclassmen elected their new officers, as well as did the annual and the dramatics club. As for conventions and meetings, we sent representatives to the N. C. Student Council Congress in Goldsboro and the State Scholastic Press Convention in Chapel Hill, where Bob Williamson was elected president for the coming year. The Y-Teen Convention at Asheville was attended by several of our girls, as well as the music convention in Greensboro.

The new annual staff began to work on the LATIPAC. Individual pictures were taken of all juniors and seniors. It was during this time that the National Honor Society tapped six seniors and five juniors into the society. Other Chapel programs that were interesting, included the "Flying Sandersons" and their acrobatic feats, Dr. Poteat's very timely talk, and Ovid Lewis' violin performance.

The Hi-Y initiated 10 new boys into the club and about the same time, the dramatics department began their new radio program. All the clubs were getting into full swing and even a Broughton glee club was organized.

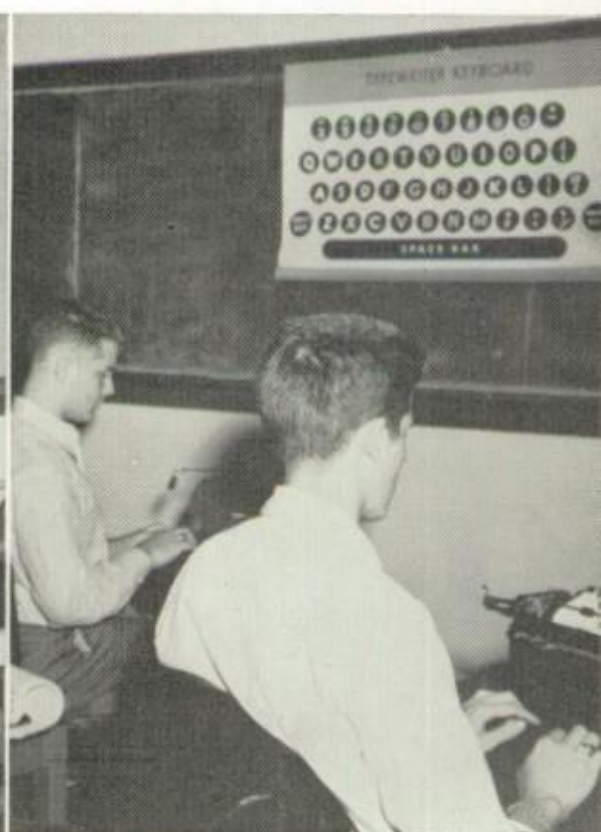

October was a big month in the field of sports. The big event of the month was the homecoming game against Manual High of Louisville, Kentucky. We all remember the fun at the pregame pep rally on Thursday night and the open house for all the alumni on Friday. Following the eighth period dance on Friday afternoon, we held our colorful parade down Fayetteville street with bands, floats, and decorated cars. Even though it rained, our spirits were not dampened; and we were all out to support our Caps. The day was topped with the dances at the armory and the new country club, and a grand finale it was at that. Football was all important during this month, but with the announcement of the merger of the two Raleigh High School basketball teams, we knew that the basketball season was not far away.

It seemed that the weaker sex was in the lime-light too. The big news from the faculty came with announcement of the birth of a baby girl to our principal—a future Broughtonite, we hope. That wasn't all that the girls were talking about; the new lounge was a topic of conversation too. The comfortable lounge chairs seemed to be an ideal place to get that last minute assignment, as well as taking down those curls.

All too soon those quickly shortening days of October passed into November. Victory at last! That's what everyone was saying when we won our first game of the season by defeating Rocky Mount. This first victory seemed to blot out the lesser games of the year, and all of us felt that it was a hard played season. Jeff Newton won particular honors when he was named the most valuable player of the year in a recognition service at the Ambassador Theater. Basketball and swimming practices started with the close of the gridiron season, and everyone had high hopes for our coming games and meets. The Intramural program in sports was in full swing and was actively supported throughout the school.

Can you remember November, without thinking of our first holidays of the year. Everyone looked forward to the four days of complete relaxation and recreation, as well as those "scrumptious" dinners and trips to the homes of their relatives.

There were a few days of worry and anxiety after the senior play tryouts and even a few days of worry before the final results were announced. We had decided to give "Seventeenth Summer"; and soon after tryouts, decisions were announced; practice was begun in earnest for December 8th and 9th; the day it was to be presented wasn't too far off.

Will you ever forget those darling little girls and boys who tried out for our mascots? Everyone of them stole our hearts, but Danny Hartzog's smile completely won our hearts and votes.

It really began to seem like school when the traffic court was organized. It didn't take long for some of those people who had used the wrong steps, run in the halls, or "broken in line" at lunch to realize the court meant business. Not only the traffic court was organized, but all the third period clubs began their activities. Soon girls were going to knitting club and knitting socks in English class, or the boys were heard feverishly discussing Carolina's "Choo-Choo" Justice's running play which they had just seen in one of their club movies.

With December and Christmas just around the corner, the Junior Class announced the plans to publish a school telephone directory. It really did save time in making our Christmas card mailing list.

Book Week was celebrated during November and we all enjoyed reading the new books the library received at that time. Some of those new novels or travel books weren't bad company on those rainy Saturday afternoons when the crowd couldn't meet at the local theater.

Wasn't it fun working on the Kiwanis minstrel? Whether we were in it or just saw it, it was a grand minstrel with laughs for everyone. But talking about programs—didn't we all enjoy the chapel program when the blind school was present? Those girls and boys really made us realize what a person can make out of his life under such handicaps.

We could mention the fact that reports cards were issued again, but good or bad there seemed to be forgotten reports in the plans for December.

December brought about that furious rush of shopping, holiday amusements, and impatient waiting for those two weeks of vacation. The school wasn't too wrapped up in its own affairs to remember the needy of Raleigh, and the Hi-Y sponsored a program.

A new year with new resolutions—that's how we returned to school on January third. Everybody was not talking of exams, but reviewing and cramming during every spare minute. Exam week was exhausting with two hour long examinations, but finally they passed and we were ready for the last semester.

With the realization that our school year was half over, we seniors elected our superlatives. Soon after the Little Theater gave its annual production with a play entitled "Mother is a Freshman." The three act comedy was well received.

After a winning streak of 27 games our basketball team met with defeat by the strong Wilson team.

Already the Monogram Club had held its yearly dance, with this year's proceeds going to the March of Dimes, and then the social standards committee made its report announcing the plans for tuxedos to be worn to the Junior-Senior Prom. They also announced the banning of flowers from all dances except the Junior-Senior Prom.

How about John Payne, girls? Is he as handsome as they say? Raleighites of all ages turned out to see Mr. Payne at his personal appearance show at the Ambassador, and some of the Broughton girls even had an interview and pictures taken with him.

Work on the LATIPAC was going forward, and soon most of it was ready to go to press. Soon after this, we were having all types of tests, and college entrance and R.O.T.C. exams. This senior year really seemed full.

"New York in March" was the main topic of discussion in the journalism classes in February. Excitedly we planned ahead for the days and nights in New York. We could hardly wait for March 7.

February 14th was St. Valentine's day. With the coming of Valentine's day, came the Queen of Hearts court and ball. Chapel that Friday was a beautiful program with the soft lights, pastel dresses, and flowers, and the singing of "The Sweetheart of Broughton High." The Saturday following, the Queen of Hearts Ball was held in the Gym. The decorations were beautiful, and the entertainment and dance were a grand ending to a perfect week of Valentine and Queen of Hearts' celebrations.

Not long after the Queen of Hearts affair, tryouts for the annual spring operetta, "Old Fashion Charm," began. Will you ever forget Ann Rothgeb as Millie, or Nancy Murray as Lois. February's days rushed to a close with the last home game of the year and "Buck's" scoring more than 40 points in one game. That chartered bus trip to Durham was fun too, and then we found our school year was cut to only three more months.

March with its usual blustery winds and cold waves was another month of conventions, meetings, and trips. The first few days of which were filled with plans for New York.

We could hardly wait for that March 7th night; and when we heard that "All aboard," we knew we were off. Our voices were all raised in southern songs and school songs as the special car rolled along. The train trip seemed very short, and sooner than we realized our train pulled into Penn Station. We traveled by taxi to the Taft Hotel where we were to stay, and already we had become conscious of the typical northern accent and rushing crowds. That slow lazy way of jay-walking so prevalent in the south had no place in the speed-way streets of New York, and there was little evidence of southern courtesy. Everybody seemed to have his business and destination, and had no interest in helping visitors.

"Tips" seemed the main interest everywhere, instead of courtesy. We found that tips insured promptness and were even expected from students. Radio City Music Hall, the theaters, Columbia University and the press convention, luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria, our first subway ride, shopping on 5th Avenue, the Ice Follies, Rockerfellow Center, hotel rooms filled with laughter and fun, the good sports our chaperones were, and many more memories will always make us remember our New York trip. The trip home was loads of fun, but everyone was sleepy and tired. It had been fun, but it was good to be home with the old crowds and school activities.

The N.H.S. had already held their convention in Concord and everyone who went thoroughly enjoyed it. Groups went to Chapel Hill, Greensboro, and Meredith for various meetings and contests, and spring was already in the air.

Easter holidays weren't too far off and plans for those new outfits were in everyone's mind. Some of the New York crowd bought some darling spring straws in various pastel colors and everyone who did not take the trip were quite envious. More saddle shoes and spring blouses were being seen and the boys were sporting new brightly colored shirts and pants. Soon the holidays rolled around and everyone had big plans for trips. Some visited relatives, some went to the services over the state, and some "hit" the beach for the first time in the 1950 season. All too soon the holidays passed and we were back in school with loads of things to talk about.

How about that Hi-Y minstrel? Wasn't it the cutest thing? The end men really were good and the entire production was one of the best the boys had ever given. Everyone enjoyed the skits and songs and the club could well afford to be proud of this work.

It came at last—the Junior-Senior Prom. For weeks the gals had been planning for "that dress" and some had been worrying about their dates. The dance was only open for girls and tuxs for the boys were optional. The theme was beautiful and the gym was dreamy setting for one of the most important affairs of the year. The dance was very crowded but everyone had a wonderful time. There were all kinds of parties, breakfasts, and slumber parties, and it was a memorable week-end.

The warming days of April passed into May. May as the last month of school filled our every moment. It was more than the last month, it was the end of our high school days. With mixed emotions we began the last four weeks.

All sorts of parties, picnics, and excitements filled the days and at last we finished our final exams and then came Senior Week. Annuals were given out, caps and gowns came, special senior issue of the Hi-Times was published, and many of us lazed away the days taking sun baths and making plans for beach parties after graduation. Class night was really sad; because, for the first time, we realized it was nearly over. With tears of happiness and sadness, we made the final plans for graduation. Graduation night will be remembered forever in our hearts. Old friends, many parting for vacations and later different colleges, thought over the wonderful years at Broughton and everyone remembered the good times they had had and people they had known while in high school.

The Broughton Story came to a close on June the 1st. The last chapter was written the night of graduation and the last leaf was turned. It was the end, but this story is ours forever.

Of all our years at Broughton, we consider our senior year the very best. After a close election, Pete Jenkins was elected Senior class President; G. M. Wooten, Vice-President; Barbara Mallard, Treasurer; Jean Johnson, Secretary; and Robin Conrad, Seargeant-at-Arms.

The Senior Council met every Tuesday before the regular class meeting on Thursday. Under the able guidance of Miss Lessie Cogdell, Senior Class adviser, the class undertook a number of projects. The Queen of Hearts' election, the Queen of Hearts' Ball, the sale of "T" shirts, the Senior Class play, Seventeenth Summer, and the Senior Class picnic, lead the list of achievements for this year. It seemed like there was forever something we had to "dish out" for. We enjoyed it, though, and Barbara Mallard was kept busy collecting money for dues, commencement invitations, and calling cards as we scraped down deep into our pockets.

Despite our trials and tribulations, we consider this year the best of all our years. It has succeeded in making all our years at Broughton perfect.

*Dear Margaret, you have been a swell friend and I like you a lot.
I want to wish you the best of luck always*

*Margaret,
I wish you
lots of luck and happiness in the future
when you look back on the good times we have had in the 1950's.
I love you and I'll always

JUNIOR CLASS

The juniors elected the following to lead their class for this year: Karl Barkley, president; Mary Lib Duke, vice-president; Jean Norton, secretary; Virginia Kime, treasurer; and Herbert Ridgeway, sergeant-at-arms.

Many projects were accomplished by the juniors. Among these were making corsages for the homecoming football game, publishing the telephone directory, and selling magazine subscriptions. The biggest event of the year was putting on the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

The marshals from the junior class were Jackie Steed, Jean Spivey, Karl Barkley, and Tommy Dunlap.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The freshman class started off a successful year by electing as their president, Tommy Newton. Other officers were: Janis Dawkins, vice-president; Jesse Chappell, secretary; Ann Eury, treasurer; and Bobby Mitchell, sergeant-at-arms. The freshman class had an executive committee made up of class officers, and homeroom presidents. Miss Mary Barber was our adviser.

The freshmen sponsored two dances throughout the year. The class, for its project, sponsored a play day, which had actors from Duke, State and Meredith colleges.

SUB-FRESHMAN CLASS

September sixth, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, that's one date I shall never forget. You see school had started, and it wasn't exactly the same, because grown up me was in high school. Needham Broughton High School, can you imagine? But that first day I didn't feel so grown up as I thought, with all those lockers, wide halls, and everybody seemed so big and old. It certainly didn't take long to learn what was right and wrong, because there was always someone there to help me when help was needed.

Then the pieces really began to fall into place, we had responsibilities and that meant that we were doing just as much as the freshmen or sophomores. The first big thing was the election of the eighth grade officers: President, Jerry Hartzog; Vice-President, Arthur Palmer; Secretary, Betty Gray; Treasurer, Harry Etheridge; and Ned Meekins, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Then we discussed what was to be our eighth grade project. We decided the most helpful thing would be to keep the cafeteria clean and to have a class dance. Everybody really worked to put both projects over. We had our dance the last of April and it was a big success, and with the help of all the students the other project was just as well done.

This year has been a full one, and I think all our goals have been reached. If the next four years are even similar to our first in high school, we won't have much to ask for.

COUNCIL ORGANIZATION

In the year 1929, the Needham Broughton Student Co-operative Association was organized with a Student Council to assume leadership. The constituents of the Council with voting power are: (1) officers: president, vice-president, secretary, sergeant-at-arms, elected by popular vote of the students, and the treasurer, appointed by the adviser of the central banking system; (2) a representative elected from each home room; (3) the chairmen of the ten standing committees who are presidential appointees. During the meetings of this group, which are held twice monthly, opinions and suggestions from the various home room members are expressed.

As the will of the student body is always desired, the most plausible suggestions made through the council members are formulated into plans. The Student Council endeavors to promote student interest in the various phases of high school life and encourages all forms of pupil participation in school activities.

The two main projects of the Jr Hi-Y consisted of a clean up campaign in which the whole school participated, and the publication of programs for all the home basketball games. The programs were each twelve pages long, with nine pictures, and a very colorful front.

A trophy was presented to the most outstanding high school coach of the year. The coach was given an individual trophy, and a larger one with his name on it was placed in the trophy case.

The Jr. Hi-Y gave its annual picnic at the end of the year.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y has had a very successful year. The club has worked through the school and the Y.M.C.A in trying to promote a high standard of Christian character throughout the community.

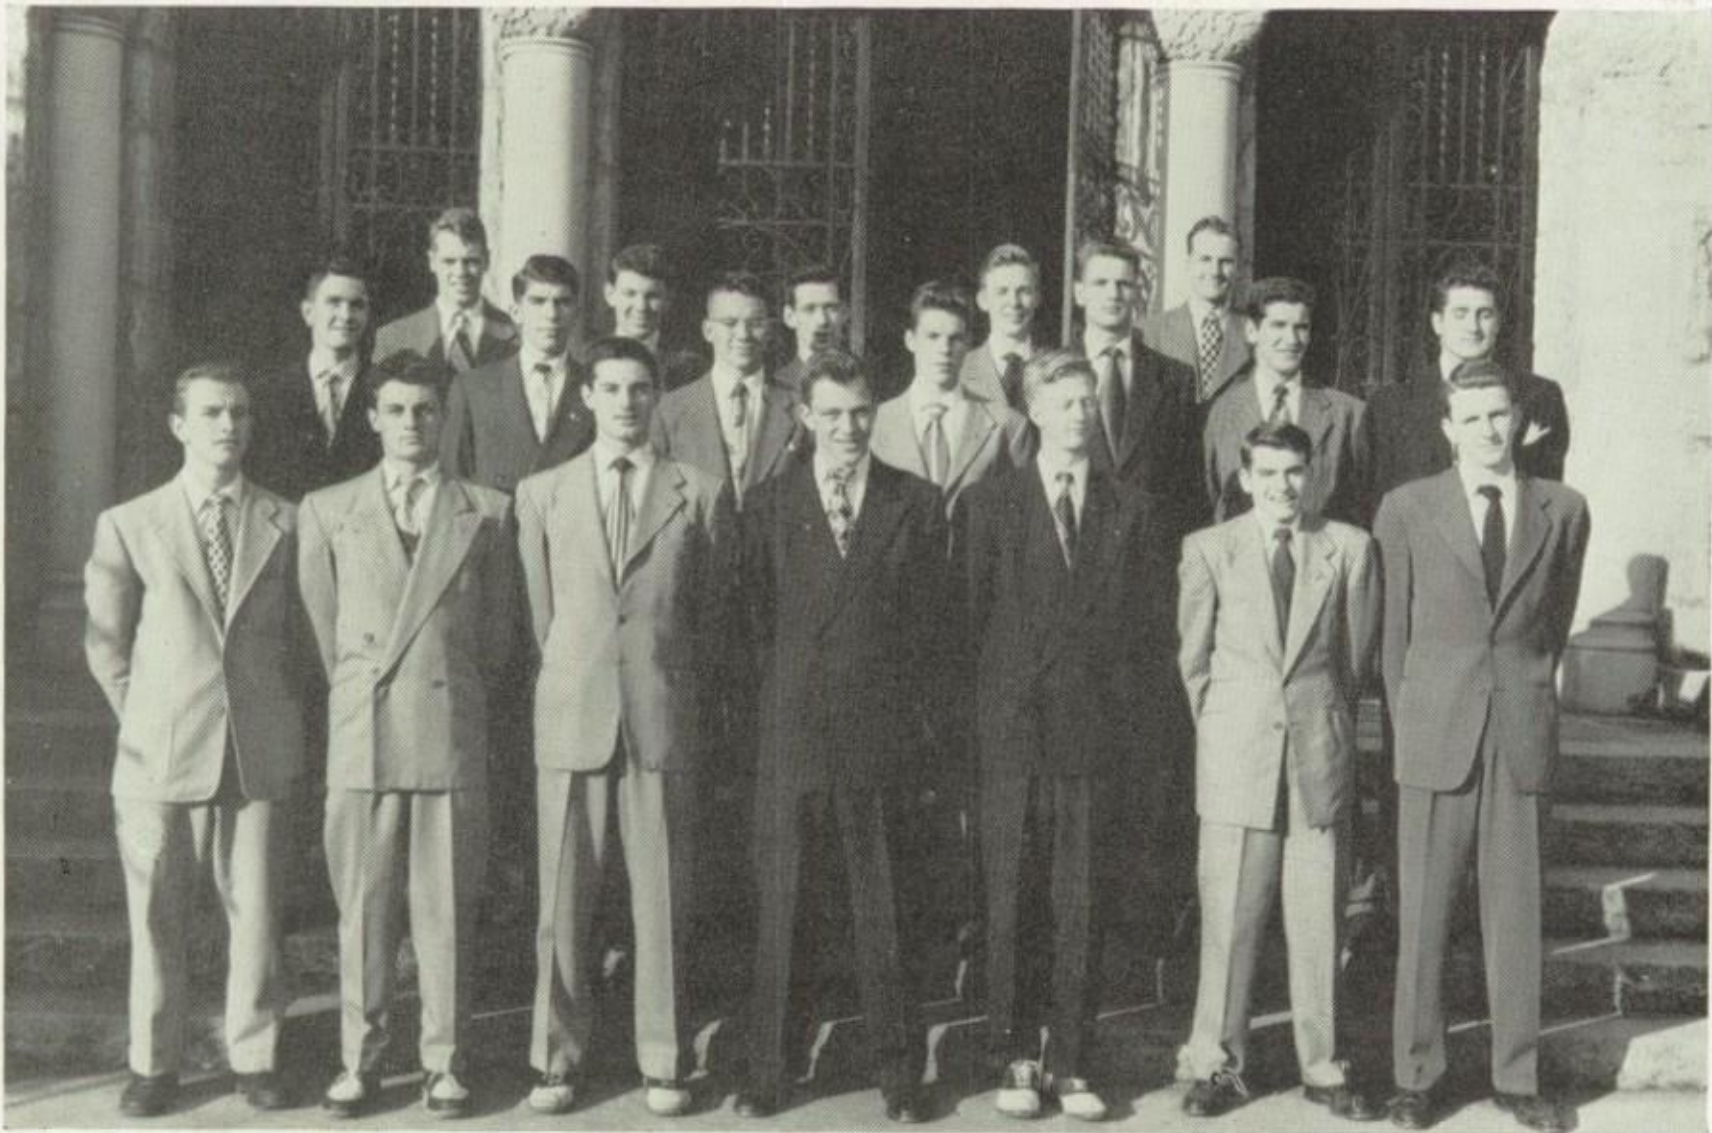

They sponsored a clean-up campaign which proved to be a benefit to the school. Monitors were appointed to watch the lines in the cafeteria and co-operate with the Student Council in this project. Numerous Churches were attended by the Club as a body.

The annual minstrel and dance were presented in the spring.

Vincent Anderson, the Hi-Y representative on the Raleigh Junior Civic Council, was elected president of the latter organization.

In February the following boys were voted into the Hi-Y; Tommy Lassiter, Kim Buchanan, Calvin Holland, Marvin Andrews, Alex Wilson, Billy Churn, Herbert Ridgeway, Karl Barkley, and Jimmy McCullough.

The Junior Y-Teens have a definite purpose. That is to establish and maintain friendship with all girls they come in contact with.

Due to the large amount of girls interested in Junior Y-Teens this year, they have had to split up into three separate clubs. All of these clubs have chosen names for themselves such as W. O. W. (Women for the World), F. O. G. (Fellowship of Girls), and Live Y'ers.

There would be no use for Junior Y-Teens if they were not useful; therefore, they have special projects to work on. A few of these are: helping to raise money for the Y. W. C. A. building, giving parties for children at St. Agnes Hospital, and helping needy families at Christmas.

Advisers for this year have been Miss Hardy, Miss Barrett, and Miss Woltz.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

This year the Senior Y-Teens, under the faithful and able guidance of Miss Mary Barber, club adviser, have enjoyed a very prosperous year. The girls talked on different subjects and saw varied programs at their regular Tuesday afternoon meetings. Many of the problems of the club were ironed out at the monthly Inter-Club Council Meeting. "The Council" is composed of the presidents and one other person from each Y-Teen Club in Raleigh.

Our Broughton Senior Y-Teens helped send chocolates to Europe at Christmas. We sponsored two campaigns that were supported by all. First the campaign to reduce noise in the halls at lunch and second, to promote more courtesy among the students, a Courtesy campaign during which some student was voted most courteous and had his picture in the Hi-Times.

Everyone enjoyed the programs which we had with the Hi-Y boys when we talked over common Teen age difficulties.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club began its year by sending a group to the Music Clinic in Greensboro. At Christmas, with the help of the dramatics department, a pageant was presented for the P.T.A. and for the student body. The chorus, ensembles, and soloists took part in the music contest at Meredith. Our chorus, combined with Morson, presented a program for the State Teachers' Meeting. The presentation of the operetta, An Old Fashion Charm, climaxed a very successful year.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club enlarged its membership this year to include not only library assistants but also a number of others who are interested in becoming library assistants. The officers of the club are: Warner Smith, President; Alan Harris, Vice-President; Ruth Boone, Secretary; Phil Houchins, Treasurer; Phil Carlisle, Sgt.-at-Arms; with Miss Nancy Burge as Adviser.

Each student assistant has a regular schedule for work in the library. This work includes processing new books, checking books in and out, keeping the book shelves in order, preparing reserve collections, shelving books, keeping the magazine room in order, making bulletin board displays, and making and delivering notices.

During regular club meetings library procedures were taught; visiting speakers told of various types of libraries and of the opportunities in librarianship as a career; trips were made to other libraries in the city.

Book Week was one of the highlights in the year's activities. A tea was given for the faculty, parents of student assistants, the P. T. A. Council, and other guests; approximately 350 new books were displayed at this time; all classes were encouraged to participate in some creative Book Week activity. Every student in school visited the library during this week.

AUDIO VISUAL CLUB

The purpose of the Club is to advance visual education in the school and to teach theory and practical knowledge of Audio-Visual equipment.

When the Audio Visual Club was organized for the 1949-1950 school year the request for membership was so great that the club was divided into two clubs, the second one being the projectionist club. The club set up all Audio-Visual equipment and furnished operators wherever needed. Also the club operated the recorders and the auditorium sound system. Just before the Christmas holidays the club played Christmas music from the tower for the enjoyment of the students.

THE HI-TIMES STORY

With Pat Eberhart as editor and Miss Laura Helen Paschal as adviser, the Hi-Times went to press at Edwards and Broughton eight regular issues. The staff was most proud of its two extras, one which came out in red ink to honor the Queen of Hearts for 1950 and her court and the other which displayed typical and practical "pranksterism" for April Fool's Day. We tried to remember that we were a representative body trying to cover the year's news as it was seen from both student and faculty eyes. One aim of the staff was to get the name of every Broughton student in the paper at least once. The editorial staff took as its main objective the complete explanation of controversial going ons at school and the writing of thought and action-provoking editorials on a teen-age community center for dancing, ping pong, reading, and other types of good, clean fun.

Members of the sports staff followed the seasonal teams for interviews, pictures, and correct summaries of the games. Leonard Kamsler and Mary Forest took the pictures; Marvin Andrew, Toby Goodwin, Bob Kost, made out the sports dummy; Wood Smethurst was sports columnist; Reynolds Price was current world news columnist.

For the features the journalism classes elected Pat Weems, Barbara Mallard, and Mary Watson to assign stories for the two inside pages. These girls gave orchids to and onions to some group or individual students every month as a way of encouraging good sportsmanship, citizenship, and all-round congratulations or criticism for certain activities at this high school.

A most interesting convention was held in Chapel Hill at Carolina during which courses were taught to help workers on school papers. Bob Williamson, Wood Smethurst, Anne McDonald, Barbara Mallard, and Pat Eberhart were the delegates who attended the convention. The students at the North Carolina Scholastic Press Association meeting elected Bob Williamson President for 1949-1950.

Betty Eatman corresponded with over sixty schools throughout the nation to get ideas for the writing staff. As exchange editor, she gathered newspapers from schools in Panama to California.

Nancy Lee, Peggy Smith, and Martha Barber made up the advertisement dummy, but special credit should be given to Howell DeBerry, Mary Fuller and Bob Kost who did most of the collecting for the ads.

Three seniors were elected editor, business manager, and advertising manager, respectively, of the 1950 annual in October. The supporting staff was chosen, and with the help of Miss Laura Helen Paschal, the annual soon began to take shape.

Mr. Johnson, from Zecca Studios, returned to Broughton again this year to take various club pictures and the individual pictures of all juniors and seniors. Delmar Studios from Charlotte took the individual pictures of all the underclassmen. Because of the new arrangement, practically all students are pictured individually in this year's annual.

Getting enough ads was a long, hard road. Students solicited the merchants at all times—on holidays, during journalism class, and after school.

The staff voted, after much discussion, to have a green colored annual with fox fur imitation leather. Lettering on the cover was agreed upon to be white.

Dedication went to Miss Paschal, adviser for the LATIPAC.

Many hours of writing, photographing, and working have been spent on this, the 1950 annual; but the staff has gained valuable experience in "putting it out." They hope that it is a "job well done."

GOLDEN MASQUERS

Broughton's Dramatics Honor Society, the Golden Masquers, recognizes students who have excelled in some form of dramatic art. Eligibility for membership is gained by extensive work in acting, production or writing of plays, and participation on stage committees.

The society entered a production in the Drama Festival at Chapel Hill. An original one-act play was entered in the North Carolina Amateur Play Contest by the group.

Members admitted in the spring are: Mary Huneycutt, Laura Holoman, Anne Hartzog, Bettie Gene Hines, Frankie Crabtree, Boots Hudson, Holt Fleming, Martha Cope, Bob MacDonald, Buzzy Young.

LITTLE THEATER

Adopting by unspoken agreement the motto, "The play's the thing," the Little Theater launched its 1949-1950 season by inaugurating an annual joint meeting with the Hugh Morson Dramatics Department. Members of the club formed the framework for the committees of the Operetta and the Senior Play; several amateur thespians presented a skit in a Fort Bragg U. S. O. show, and others worked with Raleigh Children's Theater productions. Collaborating with the Music Department, the Little Theater enacted a Christmas Pageant before the Parent Teachers Association and the student body. Weekly radio programs were under the direction of the group. The major production of the Little Theater was David Raphael Blau's Mother Is A Freshman.

Composed of thirty-eight juniors and seniors guided by student officers with Miss Doris Sparks as adviser, the organization promoted interest and knowledge of dramatic talent and work. Programs for the bi-weekly meetings included: one-act plays; radio skits; study courses in make-up, lighting, and play writing; talent programs; and speakers connected with various phases of dramatic life.

STAGE CREW

Members: Vincent Anderson, Martha Cope, Mary Lib Duke, Fran Green, Holt Fleming, Reid Jones, Earl Marshall, Jean Norton, Frank Newsom, Dusty Rhodes, Jackie Steed, Ann Shaw, Malvin Glover, John Stephenson, Clarence Tillery.

Officers: President, Calvin Holland; Vice-President, Clarence Tillery; Secretary-Treasurer, Martha Cope; Sergeant-at-Arms, Vincent Anderson, adviser, Mr. Holliday.

The activities of the Stage Crew extend far beyond the mere preparation of the stage and auditorium for chapel programs. For each play that is presented, many hours after school and at night are spent by the Stage Crew in building the set. Light for each dance is furnished by spot-lights that are moved from the stage to the gym.

The improvements that the Stage Crew of 49-50 has made should long be evident at Broughton. One of the many accomplishments that were made was the covering or rebuilding of all the flats that are used for play sets. It is the sincere hope of the Stage Crew that as many improvements will be made in the years to follow.

GIRL'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girl's Athletic Association, which is a third period club, was organized to promote girl's participation in sports. Under the direction of Mrs. Pauline Hendrix and Miss Beaver, the girls received instructions and engaged in volleyball, basketball, softball, badminton, tennis, ping pong, and speed ball.

The organization is composed of approximately forty girls who are divided into four teams. Jo Duncan, Bess Peeler, Nanette Starling, and Ruth Champion are the team captains. Throughout the year these teams compete with one another. Other officers are: Mary Watson, President; Ruth Champion, Vice-President; Joanne Curry, Secretary; Barbara Anderson, Treasurer; and Marian White-ner, Hiking leader.

In addition to the activities carried on during the third periods on Monday and Wednesday, the club has other functions. Hikes were taken on Saturdays. A varsity basketball and soft ball team play during the season for these sports. Bowling teams are also organized. Active individual participation is encouraged. Skating, horseback riding, bike riding, and bowling may be carried on as personal amusements and still be awarded points toward a letter. At the end of the school year letters, purple B's, were awarded to the eight girls having the largest number of points above two hundred. These points are earned by participating in organized and individual sports.

As the various club activities for the 1949-1950 school year got underway, the monogram club took as its chief project the responsibility of making a good name for itself and at the same time doing all the things possible which could help our school.

One of the first projects undertaken was a drive to help needy families at Christmas. A movie was held in the auditorium to which the admission was a canned food, a toy, or an article of clothing. The drive was such a success that around 1500 cans of food and around 12 boxes of clothes were collected. During the lunch periods, about $80.00 in money was contributed by the student body. It was planned in the beginning to help 5 families; however the drive was such a great success that 17 families received a crate of canned foods, a bag of potatoes, a ham, and one toy and one stocking for each child. The 12 boxes of clothes were turned over to the Salvation Army to use as they saw fit.

Then came the March of Dimes. This was about the time in which the Monogram Club was to sponsor its annual dance. The members of the club voted to give 20 per cent of all gate receipts to this worthy cause. Approximately $25 was contributed.

As the fresh green buds of trees and shrubs ushered in the various spring sports such as baseball, swimming, track, golf and tennis, we decided upon a project of making the school more sports minded. Two bulletin boards were constructed, and posters were placed on them before every game or meet which was to be held, with all the necessary information. This seemed to work well, for attendance to all athletic events began to increase immediately. The different boys of the club began several individual projects, and did a great deal toward helping our school. In general, the Monogram Club was one of the best in our estimation.

City on the following week and won a thrilling game in the last two minutes for a 7-6 victory. A pass play from Billy Lyles to Billy Tomlinson gave them the margin. Howell DeBerry threw a fourth down pass to the Raleigh right end Jeff Newton to score for the first time in three outings for the Caps. Eure, Ledford, and Al Wilson helped fight for the Caps in their losing battle.

The winless Caps traveled to Portsmouth, Virginia to play the strong Woodrow Wilson High School Presidents. They turned out to be too strong and the Capital city crew lost their fourth straight game, 25-0. G. M. Wooten made numerous tackles in the secondary from his safety position. Baise, Gargis, and Twiggs led the Raleigh line. John Collier made several good punts to get the Caps out of trouble.

Raleigh returned home for another conference battle. This time the opposition was furnished by the Wildcats from Wilmington. The 'Cats entered the game a two or three touchdown favorite and Charles Niven led them to a 13-0 victory. Rain hampered the play throughout the game, and very few passes were attempted by either side. After Wilmington had scored their first touchdown, the Caps threatened with a march to the 'Cats 18 yard line. This move faded as Wilmington intercepted Newton's pass.

Despite their fifth defeat, the Caps never lost their fight and spirit. On the following week, they traveled to Goldsboro and tied the Earthquakes 12-12. Eddie Randolph scored for Raleigh by intercepting Bell's pass and scampering 55 yards to paydirt for the purple clad boy's first touchdown. Collier's extra point was wide. The Quakes started a rally of their own and moved to the Raleigh one yard line. On fourth down, the Quakes fumbled and Newton recovered for Raleigh, when the half ended. The halftime score was 6-0 in favor of the Caps. Goldsboro came to life and scored two touchdowns before the Caps could muster up the tying score. Junior McRoy scored both Quake touchdowns. Donald Percise missed both of his extra point attempts. The Caps' converted end, Jeff Newton, now quarterback, started the Raleigh last few minutes rally by passing to Conrad, Wooten, and Pierce successively. With the Caps on the Goldsboro 18 yard line as a result of these passes, Newton faded back and threw to Wesley Ledford, the Caps rangy left end, for the tying score

FOOTBALL

Under the tutoring of new head coach Carroll King and assistants Carl Grad and Jimmy Ringgold, the Raleigh Caps launched their 1949 football season. Greensboro provided our Caps with their first opposition. Coach King took the team to the Whirlies new stadium, and the dedication ceremonies before the game will long be remembered. The Caps came out of the game on the short end of the score of 19-0. Ted Vallas, Luther Pierce, Wesley Ledford, and Thad Eure gave the Caps a few bright sparks.

The next game was at home with Raleigh's arch rival, Durham. Delona Lloyd proved to be too much as he made two long runs of 55 and 65 yards. The final score was 12-0 in favor of the Bulls. Gargis, Desern, Twiggs, and Collier lead the losing cause for the Raleigh boys.

The Wilson Cyclones journeyed to the Capital

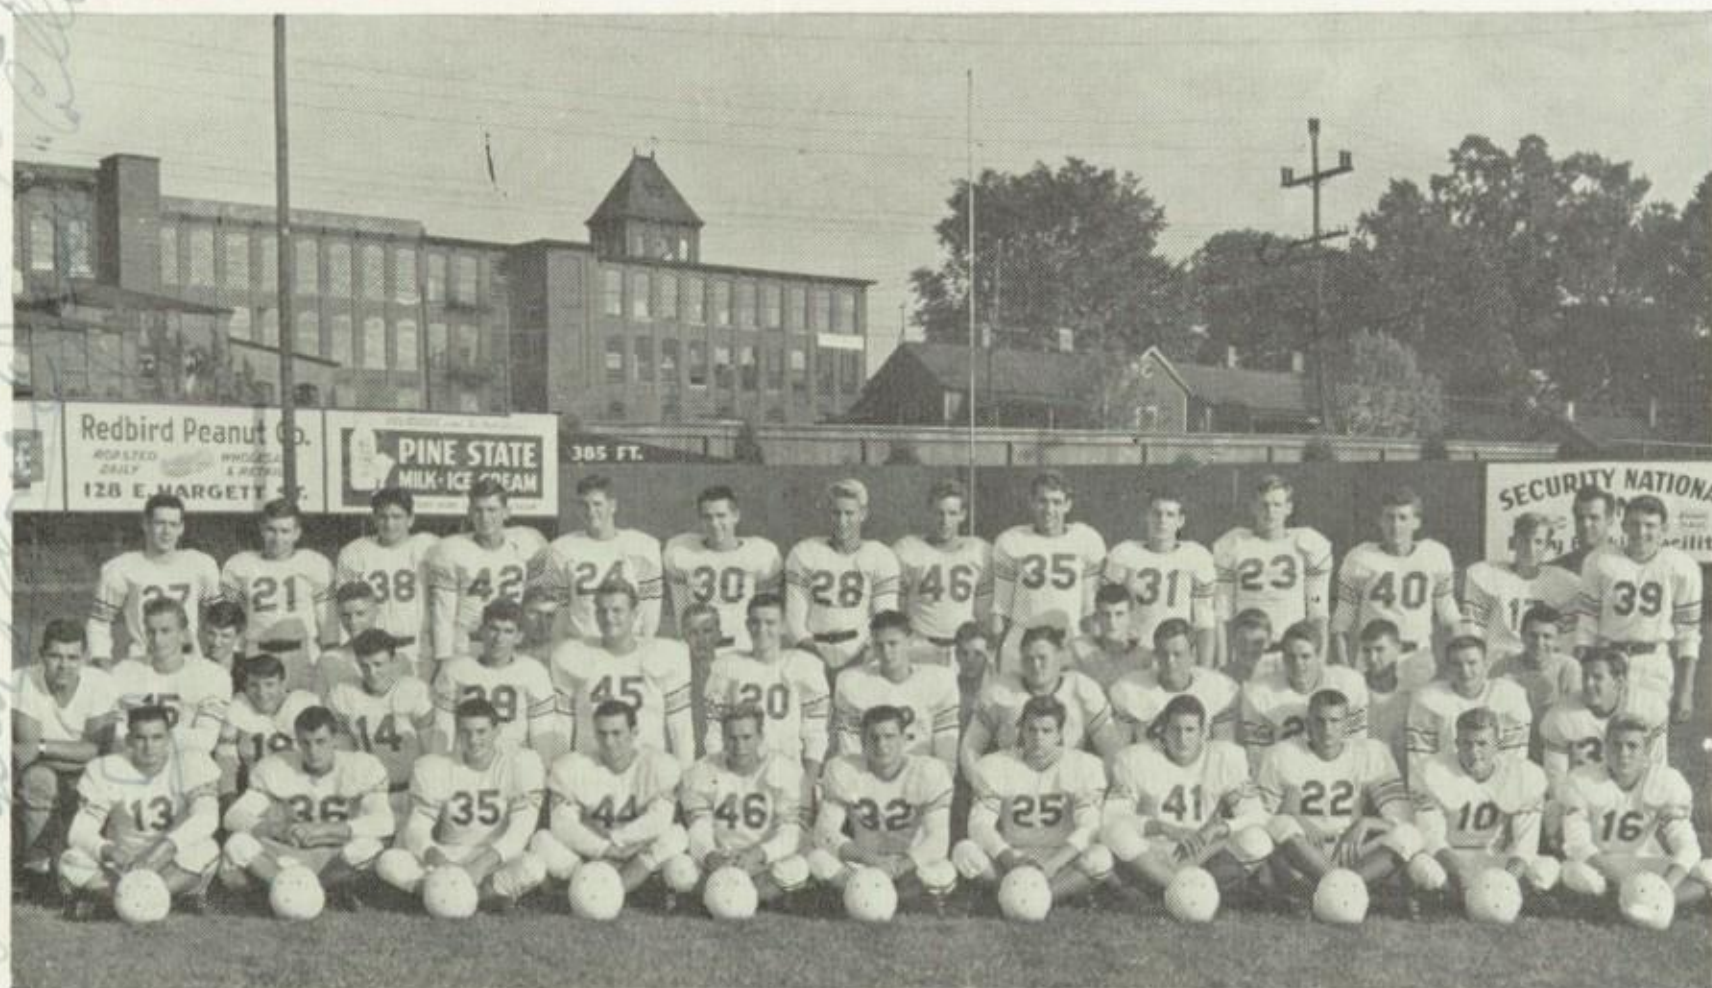

Collier's extra point attempt was blocked, and the game ended shortly thereafter.

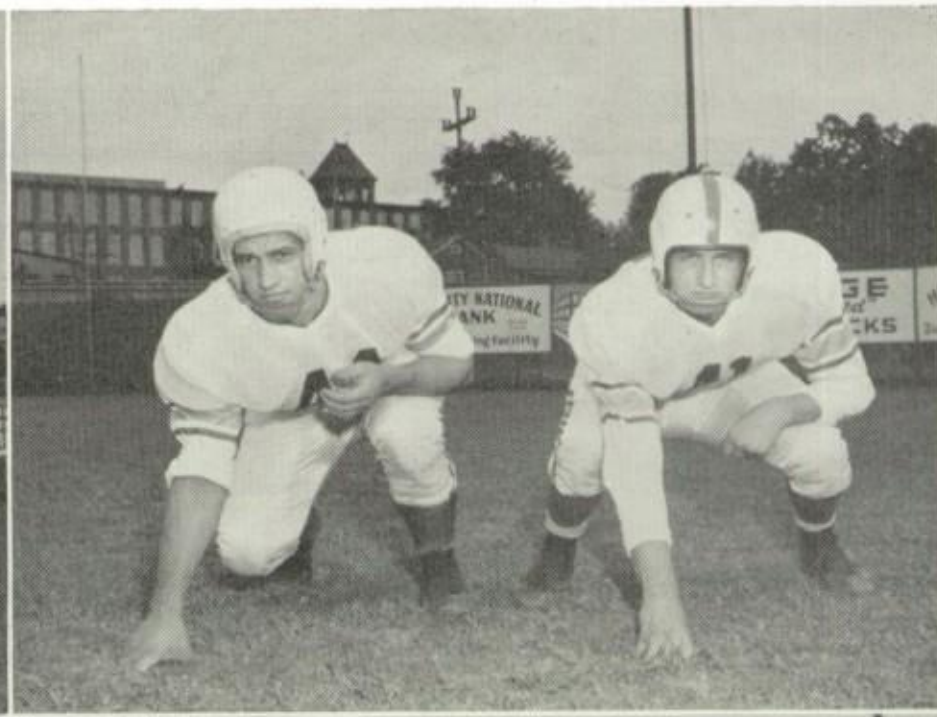

The next game was played in the beautiful Bowman-Gray Stadium, where they met the classy Children's Home eleven. Smith and Proctor led the Orphanage club by pushing across several quick touchdowns to pile up a 20-0 halftime lead. After losing one of the starting halfbacks, James Bland, the Caps crumbled under the onslaught of the Methodists. Late in the fourth quarter, DeBerry passed to Newton on the five for the first Cap score. Halfback Cary Holliday circled left end behind superb blocking to score the second touchdown. The last score came when Center Donnie Baise intercepted Smith's pass on the ten and raced across the goal to bring the Caps their final score. The game ended with Children Home in the lead, 40-18. Raleigh lost the services of Ledford for this game because of a broken thumb. Bland was lost for the season.

The homecoming game brought the Manuel High School team from Louisville, Ky. to meet the underdog Raleigh Caps. Harold Gruner, their All-Southern halfback led the powerful Manuel team to a 6-0 edge at the start of the third period. This touchdown came after a Raleigh fumble was covered by the "Red Rockets" on the Caps 18 yard line. Raleigh's scoring drive was led by their quarterback Jeff Newton, who stole the show from the highly lauded Gruner. After making two long runs, Newton carried the pigskin over for the Raleigh boys, and the score stood 6-6. The great Raleigh defense rose up to hold the "Blue Grass Boys" until 10 seconds remained before the final whistle. After the Caps ran one play, John Collier went back into punt-formation. He was trapped in the end zone for the winning Manuel two points. Ed Matthews, Al Wilson, Thad Eure, Donnie Baise, and Howard Twiggs were standouts in the impregnable Raleigh defense.

Fayetteville's previous two year state champions traveled to Raleigh to meet the Caps in what was to be the next to the last Raleigh football game of the 1949 season. The Bulldogs pushed over a second period touchdown on a pass play, but the Capitals managed to tie the score at 6-6 at the end of the first half. On third down, Newton threw a desperation pass to Ledford on the Fayetteville five yard line. He carried down to the one foot line from where Newton sneaked over for the score. Fayetteville scored twice more in the second half after the Raleigh defense caved in. The final score was 18-6.

The luckless Caps went to Rocky Mount to battle the Blackbirds on the following week. Bad luck had prevailed throughout the season, and our Caps were tired of being beaten every Friday night. Coach King and Assistant Coach Ringgold prepared the team as best as they could, and the result was the first Raleigh win of the year. The Caps came out of the game a 14-7 winner. In the first quarter the Caps showed how much they wanted to win this one. After kicking off to the 'Birds, the Caps held and forced them to punt. Jernigan gained four yards through the middle of the line. A pass from Newton to Ledford across the line was good for a first down on the Rocky Mount 45 yard line. Another pass from Newton to Wooten carried the ball down to the 23 yard line. On second down, Newton circled left end and behind good blocking, went all the way for the Caps' first score. Newton added the extra point attempt and the Raleigh team was ahead 7-0 at the end of the first period. Rocky Mount scored their only touchdown of the night early in the second period. A pass from Bob Britt to E. H. Jones accounted for the score. Bobby Joe Baker added the tying extra point and at the half the score stood at 7-7.

The Caps came back late in the third quarter when they got the ball on the midfield stripe. Newton ran quarterback sneaks down to the Rocky Mount 39, where he passed to Ledford on the 29. G. M. Wooten gained three yards and Rocky Mount was penalized for roughing the little Cap halfback. On fourth down with the ball on the Blackbirds 12 yard line, Newton passed to right end, Robin Conrad, for the winning touchdown. Newton added his second extra point of the evening. John Collier had a booming 49 yard kicking average which helped the Caps record their first win. Eure, Gargis, Baise, Twiggs, and Ussery did a good job in the line for the Caps.

A tribute should be paid to our Caps for staying together throughout a losing season. Carroll King and Jimmy Ringgold did a marvelous job considering the hardships they had to overcome. After an injury sustained in the Greensboro game, the Caps lost Ted Vallas, a sure-fire all state prospect. Wallace Hilliard, Luther Pierce, James Bland, Wesley Ledford, and Eddie Randolph had to miss several games and the Caps missed their services sorely.

Graduation will take a heavy toll on the football team for the coming season. Leaving this year as seniors from the two high schools are: Newton, Ledford, Thomas, Kost, Conrad, Vallas, Eure, Twiggs, Tillery, Sutton, Wilson, Senter, Baise, Randolph, Wooten, Bland, DeBerry, Desern, Hilliard, Holliday, Liles, Jenkins, Asbill, and Gargis.

We are looking forward to the next year and hoping the boys from Raleigh will produce a championship team. Thus, "old man football" ends for the year of 1949.

For the first time in a number of years, the high schools from Raleigh produced a Junior-Varsity football squad. Coach Carl Grad came here after coaching the freshmen Illinois to guide the ninth and tenth graders.

The Jayvees went to Cary to meet their high school varsity for the first game. They came out of the game on the short end of a 12-0 score. Buddy Boyles and Tommy Newton proved to be standouts in the Raleigh line, and Warren Mann performed well in the Cap backfield.

On the following Thursday, the Caps traveled to Fuquay Springs to meet the varsity squad from there. The endurance and reserve strength of the Fuquay boys finally got the best of the younger baby Caps, and they went down to a 52-0 defeat. Jimmy Lassiter turned out to be the sparkplug for the Raleigh squad. Linwood Eubanks also played brilliant ball.

Coach Grad's team returned to Raleigh and the following week met the Wilson Junior Varsity. This game provided the Caps with a club of their own calibre. Tough luck struck the Jayvees and they went down to a 19-0 defeat. Chris Coley and Skipper MacMillan were the standouts for Raleigh.

The next contest was with the Durham High School "Bees" football squad. The Caps lost 32-0 with Winky Nelson and Bud Kelly turning in excellent games for Grad's boys.

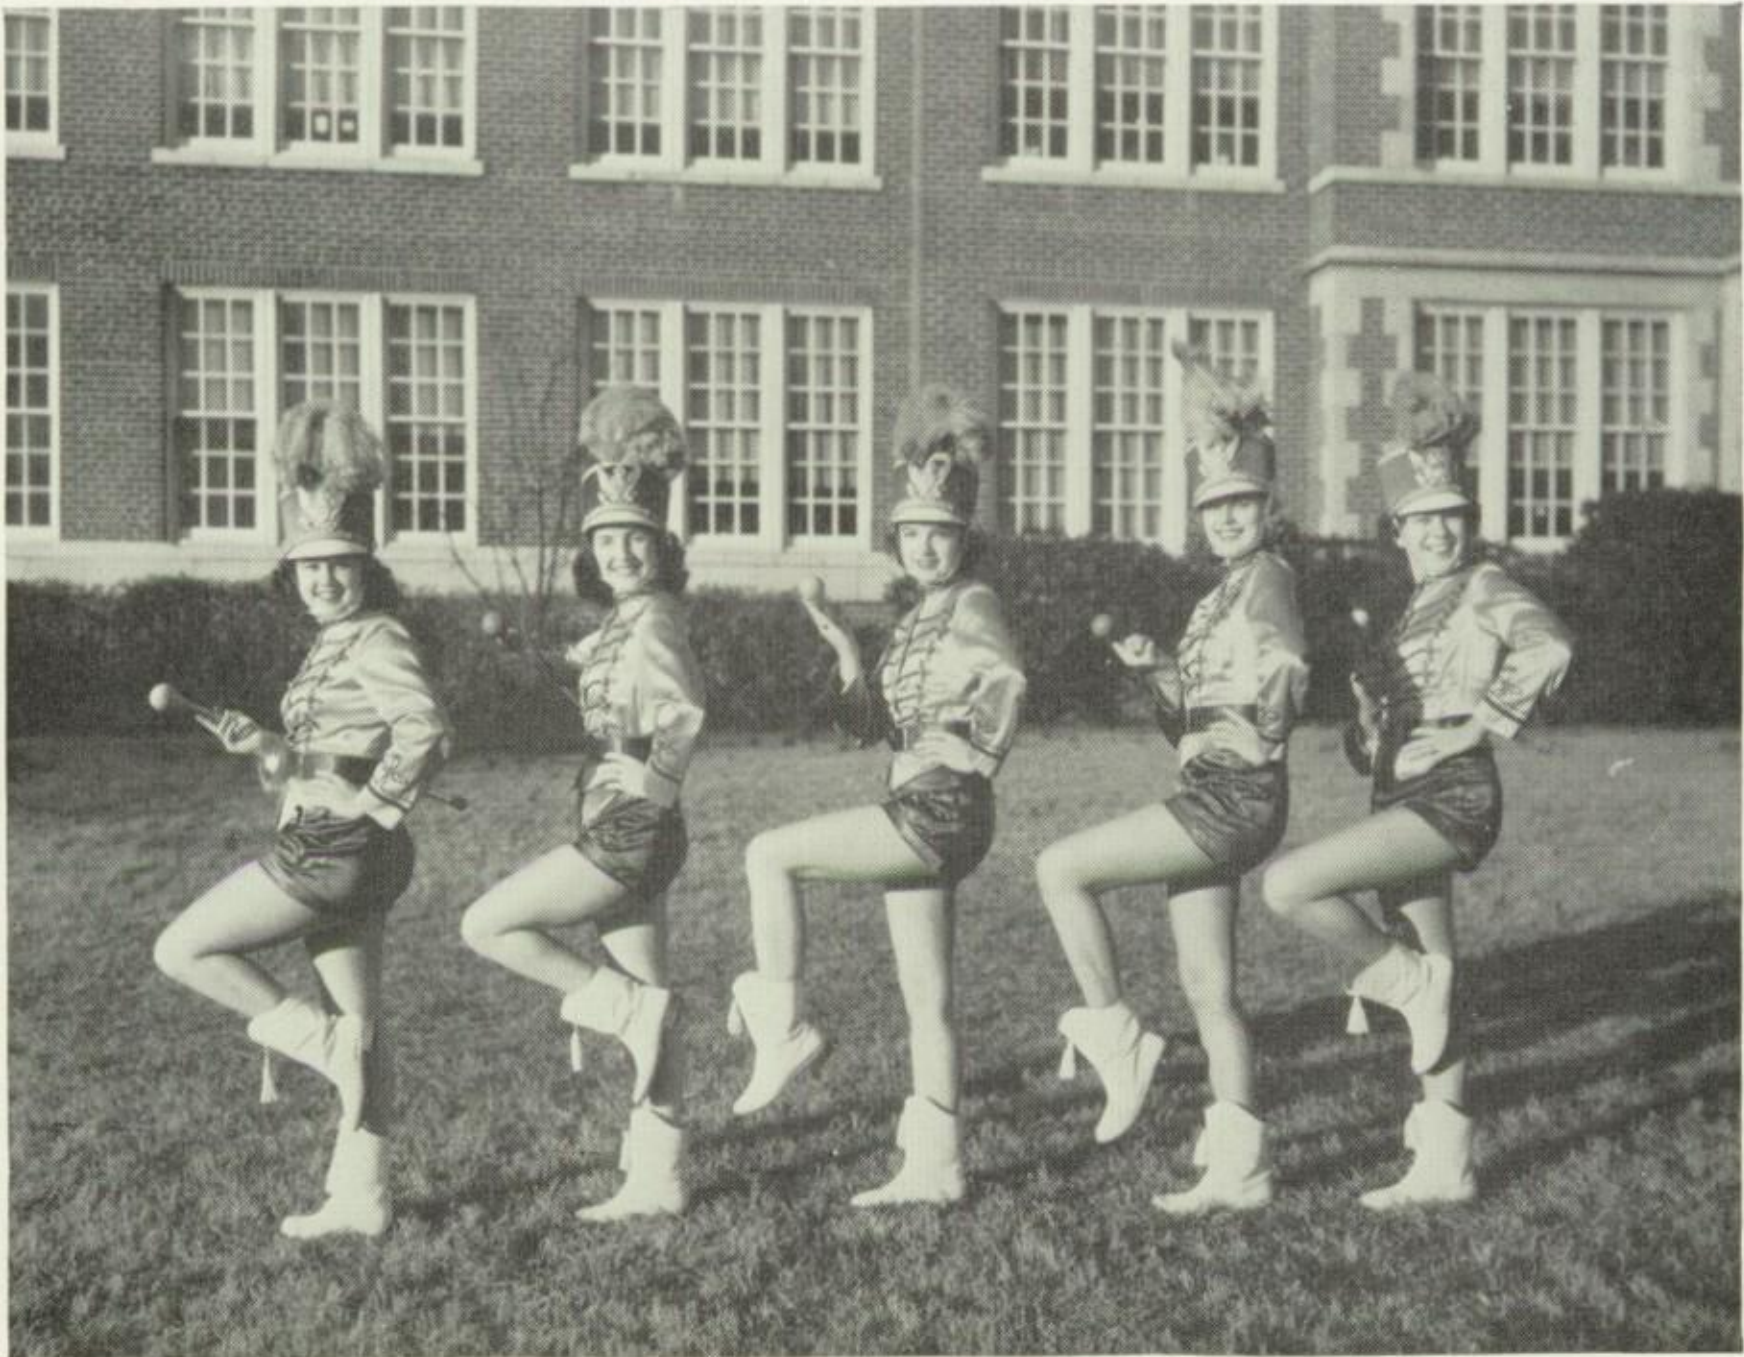

The Durham Junior Varsity came to Raleigh two weeks later and won a thrilling game 19-6. Bob Lassiter and Dallas Crumpton led the Caps in their defeat.

The final game of the season was played on the Caps' home field. They met the Selma "Bee" squad and lost 19-7. Lennox Johnson led the Raleigh boys.

Even though the babycaps did not have an impressive won and loss record, they nevertheless gained much valuable and needed experience. Coach Grad deserves a lot of credit for developing these green and inexperienced boys. He had a hard task, and he accomplished his feat remarkably well. The Jayvees are expected to bolster the varsity club considerably next year.

The varsity basketball team representing Raleigh, had the two schools, Needham Broughton, and Hugh Morson combined for the first time since 1944. Coach Joe Holliday, last year's head coach at Broughton, took over therein and guided the Caps to the state tournament in Durham. Assistant coach Carroll King assisted Holliday with the work in the squad. Raleigh finished this year fourth place in the conference standings giving Durham a good fight for third place before succumbing to fourth place. Kim Buchanan made almost all of the all-state first teams, and he led the team throughout the year.

The combined quint opened its schedule against Greenville and won handily 49-33. Kim Buchanan and Kenneth Smith each had ten points to lead the scoring for the Caps. Briley was high scorer with eleven for Greenville.

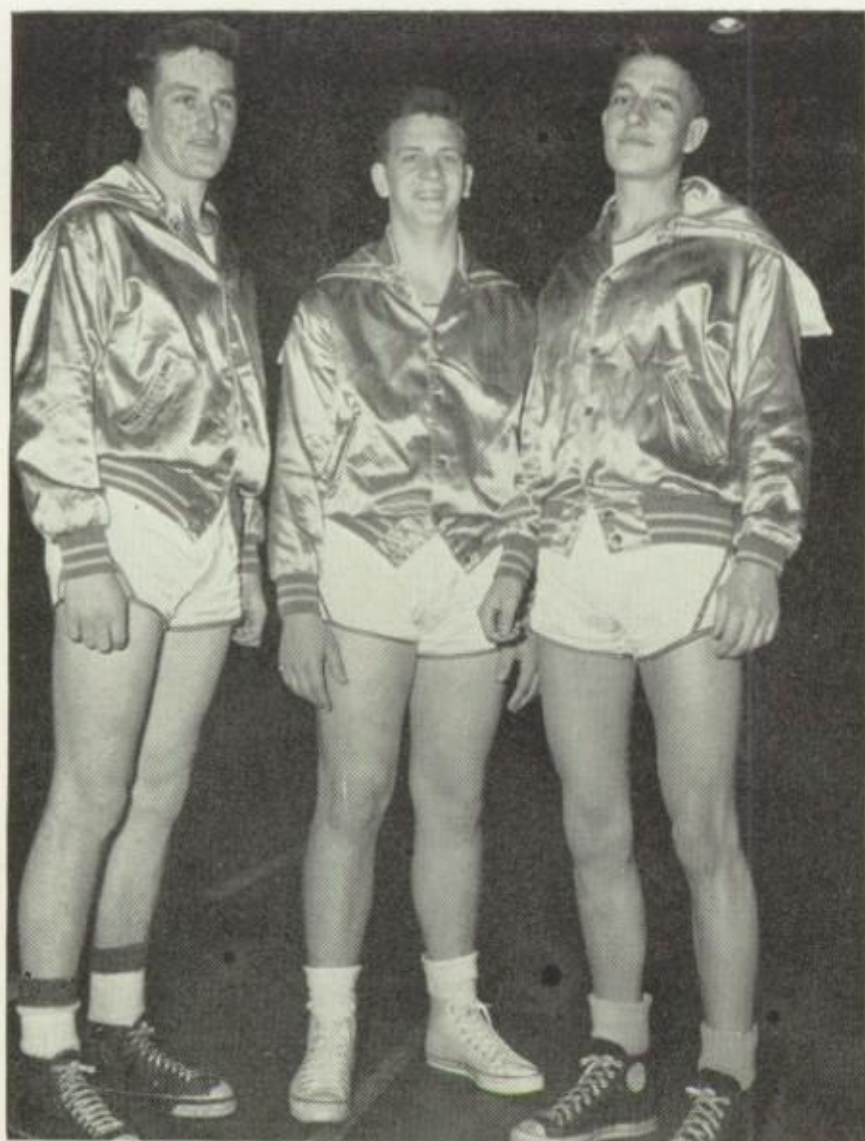

The next game was with Elizabeth City, and the Caps won in a walkaway, 52-22. Buchanan led the scoring with twelve points with Bobby Colvin close behind with nine points. Foreman was Elizabeth City's standout, with seven points.

The Western conference provided Raleigh with its next game in the presence of Burlington, and the Caps won a hard fought game, 41-32. Buchanan had fourteen points and Colvin had nine to lead the Raleigh boys. Mosey had fifteen points for the Burlington crew.

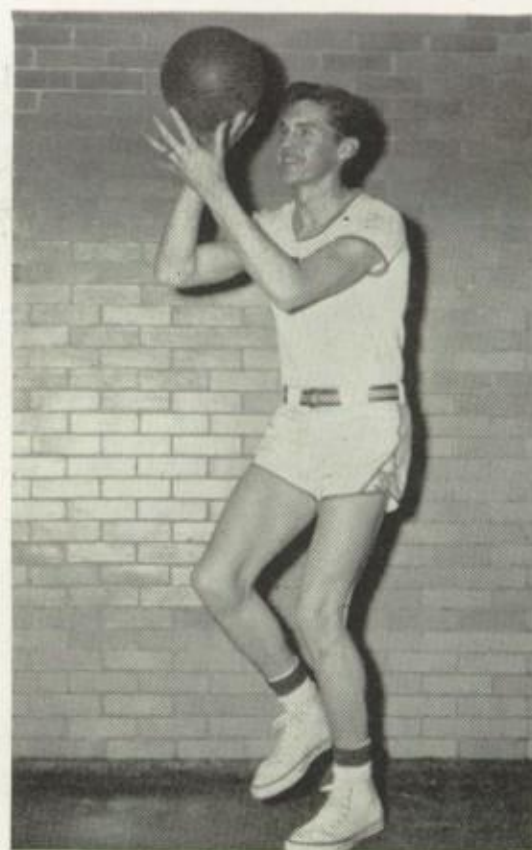

Raleigh reached its peak in the order of high scoring when they met the Clinton basketball squad. The final score was 102-47. Kim led the Caps with twenty-seven points and Johnny Kelly contributed eighteen. Denton was Clinton's limelight with thirteen points.

Greensboro came to Raleigh for the next game and went home downhearted with a 49-33 loss. Colvin led the Caps scoring with twelve points and Minor was outstanding for the losers with ten points.

A return game with Greenville netted the Caps another win, 54-40. Kim and Johnny Kelly again led the Caps' attack with fifteen and twelve points respectively while Dillingham sparked Greenville with fourteen points.

Centers, Jimmy Peebles, Bob Ussery, Bobby Colvin

Captain Kim Buchanan

For win number seven Raleigh traveled to Clinton, and led by Kim and Bob Williamson with fifteen and twelve points respectively, the Caps beat Clinton mightly, 70-42.

In their first conference game the Caps beat Fayetteville 75-42. Kim hit twenty-five points while Rupert Flaherty followed with 14 and 11 points. Knos led the "Bulldogs" with 19 points.

Forward Howard Twiggs, Guard Bob Williamson, Forward Rupert Flaherty, Guard Tommy Lassiter.

Next came the Rocky Mount game and they were defeated by the Caps for victory number nine. Again the victors were led by captain Kim Buchanan and Johnny Kelly with 17 and 13 points. Herring kept Rocky Mount in the game with 11 points.

Raleigh was on top of the conference until Wilson came to town. The Wilsonites played a great game and overcame a small Raleigh lead to win 52-42. Buck hit for 18 points, but had to take a backseat to Wilson's Tomlinson who had 21 points. This defeat was the first in 27 games for Coach Joe Holliday.

The second defeat in a row came as the Caps met Wilmington and lost 53-40. Despite Buchanan's 20 point total, the Cats ruled supreme, with Niven collecting 18 points. Kelly helped the Raleigh cause with 9.

The Raleigh boys again hit their stride after these two defeats and beat Goldsboro 62-49. Colvin and Flaherty led the Caps cause with 15 and 14 points respectively. Ronald Percise led the Earthquakes with 15 points.

Fayetteville was the next victim for the Caps, as they trounced the Bulldogs 62-32. Flaherty and Sonny Thornton led the Caps with 12 points each. Frank Berry led the Cumberland County boys with 14.

Raleigh again met defeat at the hands of the all powerful Wilson team. The Cyclones had Lyles and Tomlinson, who proved to be too much for the Caps, as Lyles scored 13 and the latter 12. Rupert Flaherty led the Caps scoring with 11 points and Kelly and Buchanan each had 10 points.

The next game was taken by the Caps against Rocky Mount by a score of 64-48. Kelly had 16 points and Kim contributed with 15 points. Peese led the Blackbirds with 11 points.

Back in their home court, Raleigh beat third place Durham to the tune of 46-37. Buchanan played a great game and came out high scorer with 21 points. Nichols and Lloyd led Durham with 13 and 12 points.

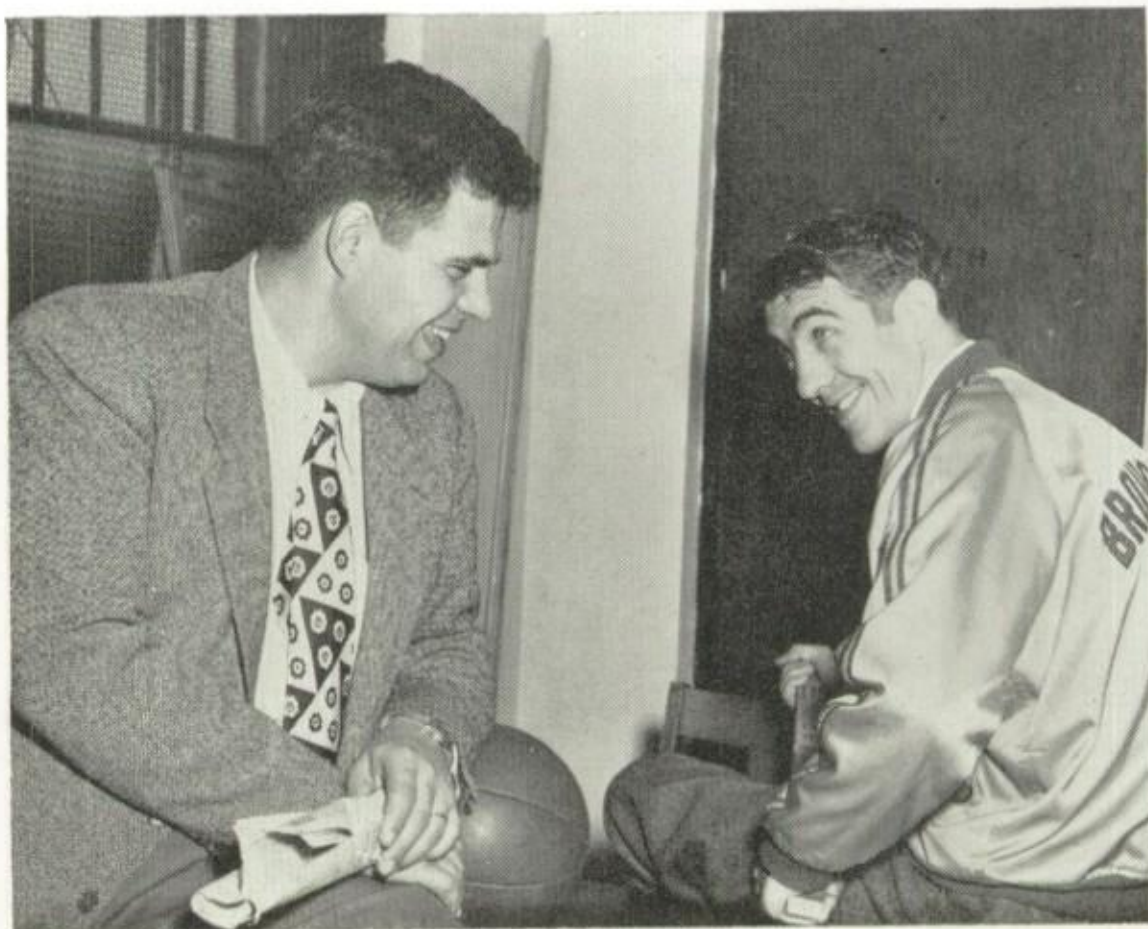

Wilmington hurled Raleigh their fourth defeat of the campaign, 74-60, in the port city. Three Wildcat boys hit the net with the 20 mark. Frederic with 23, Niven with 22, and Hillburn with 20, led the Cat's attack. Kim Buchanan took high scoring honors for the evening with 27 points.

Goldsboro met defeat by the Caps who ran up one of their highest scoring games, 74-46. Kim Buchanan broke the state record by scoring 40 points. Buck lacked 6 points of scoring the total number of points by the entire Goldsboro team. Richard Percise had 18 for the visitors.

Raleigh met Durham in the last regularly scheduled game of the season. On their homecourt, the Bulldogs were hot and ran up a total of 76 points to the Caps total of 63. Albert Love had 28 points for the victors and Kim kept up his hot streak by scoring 33 points. Flaherty came through with 17 points.

Raleigh entered the State tournament in Durham in the Duke University Gym. The Caps drew High Point, the powerful Western conference champs for their opening round game. Powell had a great night for the Black Bisons by scoring 26 points. The rebound, tap-in artist hit on almost every shot he took from the floor. Kim Buchanan had 13 points to lead the Caps in their defeat. The final score was 60-50 in favor of High Point. Thus, the Raleigh High School ended its season for the year 1949-1950.

Coaches Joe Holliday and Carroll King are to be commended for their fine work with the combined quint.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity basketball team from Broughton had only a mediocre season, winning seven while losing nine, but they gained valuable experience which will go to make up a better varsity in the coming years. Rob Bell, six foot-three inch center, is the only squad member who was not a Freshman, and consequently he will be the only member lost from the Jayvee team next year.

The leading scorer was Lennox Johnson, who was followed by Bell. This duo bore the brunt of Raleigh's scoring in almost every game. Herman Taylor and Malvin Glover also turned in outstanding performances.

Coach Grad did a splendid job with his underclassmen, and the popular mentor deserves much credit.

Assistant Football Coach Jimmy Ringgold switched his talents to the diamond to become Baseball coach for the past season. As we go to the press, the Capitals have won two of their eight conference starts. Richard Rhodes and John McAllister received credit for these wins. They were by scores of 14-3 and 7-6. Jimmy Bland is the most valuable all around player on the team. He started the season at shortstop, but switched to catcher because the Caps lacked defense and power there. Lennox Johnson has clubbed a brace of home runs to lead the Raleigh hitting.

Bobby Kost. Third row: Bobby Gaddy, Tommy Dunlap, Wade Cooper, Larry Tippet, Herb Ridgeway, Coach Willis Casey.

For the second straight year, Raleigh High School has produced a championship team in swimming. Coach Willis Casey led the squad for the first time. He did much to help the winning crew. Captain Bobby Kost was undefeated in the fifty yard free-style race.

The Capitals traveled to Atlanta, Georgia for the Southeastern Inter-Scholastic Meet. The team came in first in the high school division. All of the team showed up well.

The Duke Invitational was the next meet for the boys from Raleigh. They brought home their second straight win of the young season. Kost and Dunlap starred for the Caps.

After the Duke Invitational, the Caps traveled to Chapel Hill for the Southern Swim Meet. Casey's boys won this meet in fine style. Anderson, Churn, and Pressley showed up well for Raleigh. The Caps set a record in the two hundred yard relay.

On the following week, Raleigh met the Duke Freshmen in a dual meet in Durham. The Caps won outstandingly. The State Champions also beat Granby High School twice. This team is the championship squad of Virginia. Greensboro also met defeat at the hands of the Raleigh tankers.

Pat Eldridge, Billy Churn, Larry Tippet, Tommy Dunlap, George Pressley, Graham Anderson, and Captain Bob Kost were the main cogs in the drive for State Championship honors. Coach Willis Casey deserves much credit for his fine work with the swimming team.

ACHIEVEMENT

Never gained easily — the graduate's diploma is a symbol of a truly great Achievement — one in which every graduate may take pride for all his life.

The Achievement of gaining the confidence and friendship of students and faculty is one in which we not only take pride, but which we cherish and guard with constant vigilance.

READ THIS . . . before you decide on your profession

Do you like children?

Do you like to feel you're helping them develop, helping them build their lives and their futures?

Do you like facts and ideas . . . like to absorb them and add to your intellectual stature?

Do you like to feel you're taking part in the progress of your community, your state, your country — and the world?

Do you have imagination? Poise? Patience and understanding? Good health and normal energy?

If you can answer "yes" to these questions, the chances are good that you have a talent for teaching.

During the next few years, 230,000 teachers — over and above those required to fill normal vacancies — will be needed in our schools.

There is a special need for teachers in elementary grades . . . and there will be an even greater need during the years ahead.

Your place may be in this highly honored profession — look into the possibilities today.
